

Do you have your Class A or B CDL?

If so, come work for us! Our over-the-road (OTR) drivers can live anywhere in the U. S. and drive anywhere! Reynolds Transfer & Storage is an agent of United Van Lines. Our drivers are key to our business and are valuable members of our organization.

Driver for Household Goods Job Duties:

- Ensure all customers receive exceptional service from their first contact to their last contact with Reynolds Transfer.
- Responsible for picking up and delivering household goods to and from the customer's residences.
- Communicate with and support fellow team members and customers in a variety of settings.
- Load and unload vehicles by hand or by use of a hand truck/dolly.
- Safely handle and move large appliances and furniture.
- Stack and secure items in the vehicle to prevent damage during shipment.
- Accurately complete inventory documentation for the load.
- Responsible for accepting payment and managing receipts and paperwork.
- Possesses basic knowledge of roadways and routes.
- Responsible for following applicable laws including the Department of Transportation rules and regulations for truck drivers, keeping logs of activities and making sure that equipment is in good working condition.
- Inspects and maintains vehicle supplies and equipment, such as gas, oil, tires, water, lights, and brakes.

Requirements:

- Valid Class A or Class B driver's license & a clear driving record.
- Ability to drive a manual transmission vehicle.
- Follows verbal and written directions.
- Adaptability and foresight to handle unexpected situations (traffic, weather conditions, etc.).
- Responds promptly to customer needs.

- Excellent time management skills.
- Effectively communicates and interacts positively with others.
- Acts as a team player and proactively assists and collaborates with other team members.
- Ability to efficiently operate a tablet, electronic logging device (ELD) or other similar technology.
- Works independently, with minimal supervision.
- Is reliable and punctual.
- Has a positive attitude and professional demeanor.
- Works a flexible schedule, including extended hours and weekends.
- Must pass a DOT medical screen, drug screen, and a criminal background check.

Physical Requirements:

- Ability to sit for extensive periods of time. Able to handle heavy objects and move items for several hours a day. Able to continually move body at a fast pace. Able to frequently sit, stand, talk and hear. Able to frequently climb, balance, bend, stoop, kneel, crouch, and walk. Able to frequently lift and/or move up to 100 pounds.
- Will be exposed to periods of being outdoors.

Benefits:

- $3,000 Sign On Bonus
- Stable and growing organization
- Professional, positive and people-centered work environment
- Load and unload hired labor paid for by the company
- Comprehensive benefits package: Health, Dental, STD, 401(k), Paid Parental Leave
- Paid holidays, paid vacation and paid work anniversary day
- Eligible for a per diem when over the road
- Eligible for Employee of the Week Award
- Paid to perform Community Service
- Eligible for End of Year Bonus
- Pet policy so you can bring your dog on the road
- Uniform Stipend